The Progress Club gave a very enjoyable party at Sheldon's last night, which was well attended, the floors being covered by gay dancers. Dancing was kept up until a late hour.

A most delightful entertainment was given Wednesday evening last at Martin Becker's Hall, No. 628 Virginia avenue southwest, under the auspices of the Columbia Fishing Club. The lucky licket (No. 396) was held by Mr. C. H. Johnson. The affair was a most enjoyable one.

Hon, Honry M. Teller, as Sceretary of the Interior Leavestern is resulted following the extension. Hon, Honry M. Teller, as Secretary of the Interior Department, is rapidly fulfilling the expectations of his many friends and admirers. His tireless industry and the ability and fearlessness with which he treats problems of the highest national importance are beginning to be recognized by the country at large, while at Washington highly flattering comparisons are being made with former administrations of the same department—Dewer Times.

Carroll Institute. The members of this popular organization and their friends turned out in force Thursday even-ing to hear Lieutenant Sturdy, U. S. N., lecture on the "Transit of Venus." The lecturer opened with a brief explanation of the purposes which the observation of the transit is intended to sub-serve, viz: the correct computation of the exact distance of the earth from the sun. He showed distance of the earth flow the same. He showed by illustration on the black-board the methods for determining the distance, its necessity in astronomical calculations, and gave a clear and practical explanation of what is known as "solar parallax." He described the difficulties attending these mea-urements, such as the phenomenon of the black drop, &c., and gave a history of provious observations of the transit of Venus, describing Halley's and Delisie's method. After stating that the phenomenon would not again occur until the year 2004, he showed by sketches how transits occurred at regular intervals in cycles at 243 years. The entire lecture was profusely illustrated by diagrams, and was listened to with the closest attention by the large and intelligent audience present. The cloquent lecturer was warmly congratulated at its close, and after a beautiful song by Mr. J. E. Shorb, of St. Matthew's Choir, and a brilliant piano solo by Mr. Kurtz, the throng dispersed, well pleased with their Thanksgiving evening. illustration on the black-board the methods

A woman, evidently an Italian, and provided with an organ mounted upon a push-cart, was dispensing music Wednesday evening on F street, near Seventh. She had with her a baby and a four-year-old boy, whether her own children is the doubtful. The baby was cold and crying, while little boy was in a most deplorable condition—half sick, overworked, and suffering excessively from sick, overworked, and suffering excessively from wet feet and cold. He had been on his feet in the melting snow from early morning, gathering pennies, which an untilinking public bestowed upon the heartless woman. The little boy scemed inclined to sit right down upon the snow-covered pavement, the action being involuntary, and seemingly the result of complete exhaustion. A policeman, whose attention was directed to the child, ordered the woman to take her children where it was warm. Later in the afternoon, however, she was seen again, engaged in harshly reprimanding the little boy for some fallure to keep on his feet. It is a case that should receive the attention of the authorities. In New York and other cities there is a strong law and stronger feeling against "padrouing," i.e., the use of children as above described.

The Woman's League.
The rooms of the Woman's National Labor
League were packed to the door Thursday night. After the transaction of important business Mr. Wright, of the Knights of Labor, from Philadelphis, sent as a delegate to ascertain the real stand-ing of the League, made a speech, in which he ing of the League, made a speech, in which he stated that the League would have the support of 50,000. Knights of Labor of Philadelphia, Mr. Brown bitterly denounced the Post for its insult to the league last week, Mr. Billingsiy said he intended to bring up the matter before the workingmen of the country. Mrs. Bryan moved a resolution of thanks to Mr. Edmonston for introducing the league in the platform at the convention in Cleveland. A number of letters and papers were received from the various trades unions and laboring organizations in the United States.

Hev. Dr. Boole's Lecture. The great temperance lecturer, Rev. W. H. Boole, D. D., will deliver his lecture, "The Liquor Traffic the !Financial and Commercial Fraud of Trame the Frinancial and Commercial Fraud of the Nation," at Metropolitan Church, corner of Four and a-half and C streets, this evening. There is no doubt that this will prove an attrac-tion to the hundreds of temperance people in this city, and that a large sudience will assemble to hear what this eminent divine has to say upon a subject that is now demanding such carnest at-tention all over this country.

Pickpockets Arrested. Detectives McDevitt and Vois Thursday re-ceived information that three Baltimore pick poela-ets were working this city. They mounted a Mr-tropollian street car and at Ninth street and Pennsylvania avenue arrested Eddle Tully, Josh Mully, and "Hardtack," three well-known pick-packets, who came over from Baltimore to attend the Garfield Fair. They were locked up at the fifth precinct station.

THANKSGIVING IN GEORGETOWN.

Delightful Hop Given in the Seminary Building by the Young Ladies. The hop given at the Seminary building, Georgetown, Thursday night by the young ladies of this place to their gentleman friends was decidedly the most pleasant affair of the kind that ever occurred in that ancient cemetery, and was highly appreciated by the recipients of the com-pliment. The hall had been beautifully decohighly appreciated by the recipients of the compliment. The hall had been beautifully decorated by the fair hands of the young hostesses, and every arrangement thoughtfully made for the comfort of their invited guests. Mesdames William B. Johns, J. Holesworth Gordon, J. S. Billings, and Oscar Stevens were the chaperones of the evening, receiving the guests gracefully. The committee of arrangements, to whom was due so much of the evening's pleasure, was composed of Misses Annie and Irene Jones, Mamie and Virgie Cassin, Birdie Billings, Charlotte and Emily Stevens, Nenoh Bodge, Nettie Tilghman, and Edith Cragin. Among the many ladies present, in addition to the above, were Mesdames McCartney, Shuster, and Wheatley, Misses Emmie Barbarin, Brockenborough, Fannie Bogue, Bertie Danenhower, Annie Davidson, Dodson, Virginia Dougal, Lidie Hester, Belle Hardie, Johnson, Elle Johnston, Maggle Leotob, Mamie Libbey, Gracie Moffatt, Florence Murphy, Mamie Nicholson, Corinne Rilley, Stewart, Lella Shoemaker, Kitty Trimble, Tilghman, Thomas, Hattle Ward, Lou Willett, Mary and Nellie Williams, Hattle Wood, and a bevy of other fair Georgetown belles. The party broke up at a late hour this morning after an evening of unalloyed pleasure.

The grand musical and literary Thanksgiving entertainment of Good-Will Commandery U. O. G. C., at Congregational Church last night, was in every respect an immense success, every avail-able seat and standing space being occupied, and able seat and standing space being occupied, and several hundred people were sent away unable to obtain admission. The programme, which was an unusually brilliant one, embraced none but the most prominent of local artists. Each number was well received and enthusiastically applanded. The prominent feature of the programme were Mr. Whippie's baritone solo. The beard was well adapted to his full round tones and me excellent phrasing added special charm to the song. Mr. J. S. Powell's solo, "In Dreams I've Heard the Seraphs," with organ accompaniment, was an exquisite number, and added to that lady's already great reputation as an artist. Mr. John O. I'ugh was in excellent voice and sang his pretty ballad with such sweetness and expression as to break through the barrier, and in response to a very persistent and emphalic encore he sang "My Native Land." Miss Etta Maddox, atthough suffering from a very severe cold, sustained her well-earned reputation as a conscientious arrist, and was heartily encored. Mr. Ed. Hay gave in his inimitable manner "Watkins's Eventing Party," responding with "I'te Partington at the Opera" as an encore piece. Miss Eva Milis, Washington's favorite soprano, was in excellent voice, and sang the difficult bars of "Che Giola" in an artistic and finished manner. As an encore she sang "Last Rose of Summer." Mr. John Tweedale's reading was in his happiest vein, and in response to an encore recited his well-known "Rip Van Winkle." The commandery has every reason to be proud of the success of its first appearance before the public. several hundred people were sent away unable to ery has every reason to be proud of the succes of its first appearance before the public.

A Thanksgiving Wedding.
Mr. W. G. Kendig, one of the most popular young gentleman in this city and telephone operator at police headquarters, was united in mar ator at police headquariers, was united in marriage with Miss Laura Wailoy, one of Washington's isirest belies, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, corner of Eleventh and H streets, Thursday night. The church was weil filled with the friends of the contracting parties. The church was prettily decorated and the service very impressive. Rev. Stephen Bomer, the pastor, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Kendig were driven to their new home, where a pleasant reception was keld.

Miss Tilghunn's Renefit.

Lincoln Hall was crowded to overflowing last night at the testimonial concert to Miss Amelia L. night at the testimonial concert to Miss Amelia L. Tlighman. The programme was carefully selected, and embraced the names of all the prominent local talent, together with the assistance of Mrs. Neille Browne Mitchell, a soprano, of Boston: Mr. A. J. Hall, a Chicago tenor, and Mr. T. J. Bawers, a tenor of Philadelphia. Miss Tlighman's own selections were quite happy, and her efforts were thoroughly appreciated. Miss Blanche Washington was the accompanist, and abiy performed that difficult task.

Thanksgiving Sprees. Thanksgiving day than has been seen for some time. The police did a rushing business, making a very large number of arrests. The cells were taxed to their utmost capacity, and in some of the stations there was not room enough for the per-sons brought in. In the fifth precinct alone over thirty arrests were made and in others nearly as many.
